

Who gives?

Here's a look at the philanthropic efforts of Tucson's businesses:

- ▶ The M&I Foundation contributed $10,000 to Arizona's Children Association Independent Living Skills program for teens aging out of foster care in Arizona. Bank volunteers also will assist the youth served by the program with fiscal responsibility education.
- ▶ La Paloma Academy, along with project partners, dedicated its first Habitat for Humanity home to the Huynh family. Project partners included Affordable Rent to Own, Airtronics, Iota Engineering and Tierra Antigua Realty.

- ▶ Five charities have been named beneficiaries of the Southern Arizona Home Builders Association's 13th Annual Carnival de Golfe Charity Golf Tournament in September. Proceeds will benefit the Critical Path

Institute, Hearth Foundation, Parent Aid, Tee Up For Tots and Youth On Their Own.

- ▶ YWCA Tucson received a gift of $1 million from The Emerald Foundation in memory of the late Frances McClelland, chief financial officer of Shamrock Foods Co. and past president of the YWCA. The YWCA's new location at 525 N. Bonita Avenue is dedicated as the Frances McClelland Leadership Center.

Congratulations to our finalists!

We received 115 nominations for the 2007 Tucson Business Edge 40 Under 40 awards. Once again our five judges had their work cut out for them. But they managed to buckle down and come up with 60 outstanding finalists. From these 60, 40 will be selected by the judges to receive awards. One man and one woman will be singled out for special recognition at the Aug. 8 event.
